

HAPPINESS PROJECT
A PLACE AT THE TABLE
Film presentation Centre 64.
See LOCAL NEWS page 3

NEW SPIDERS & MORE
FLATHEAD TALK
Join Wildsight and scientists at COTR tonight.
See LOCAL NEWS page 4

TODAY'S TOP STORY!
TODAY'S TOP STORY!
TODAY'S TOP STORY!
STORIES OR IDEAS TO SHARE?
Drop us an email, a Tweet, a Facebook message, or give us a call if you have any story ideas you would like to share.
www.dailybulletin.ca

THE BULLETIN

Like Us

TownsmenBulletin

Follow Us

@kbulletin

PROUDLY SERVING KIMBERLEY AND AREA SINCE 1932 | Vol. 82, Issue 14 | www.dailybulletin.ca

$1<sup>10</sup> INCLUDES G.S.T.

KIMBERLEY RCMP

Sully B & E

Theft of truck and break and enter likely related

CAROLYN GRANT
editor@dailybulletin.ca

Kimberley RCMP are looking for a white 2006 Ford F-350 truck, which was not only stolen early morning January 20, but is likely related to a break and enter, says RCMP Cpl. Chris Newel.

Newel says Kimberley RCMP received a report of a stolen truck on the morning of Sunday, January 20 when the owner discovered it missing. A short time later, police received a report of a break and enter to the office of the Sullivan Pub on Ross Street.

"A subject entered an office upstairs of the pub at approximately 4:30 am," Newel said. "Once inside, he removed a black fire safe and departed. Video surveillance showed a white pickup truck and police believe it to be the one stolen. The safe only contained personal papers."

Newel says the suspect may have known the location of the safe.

"I can't say from the video. But we do believe the person knew it was there because nothing else was touched or stolen."

Police are asking anybody with information or anyone who sees the vehicle to please call Kimberley RCMP at 250 427-4811.

The truck has license plate DN9692 and a "Pioneer 107" on the front as an identifier for Forest Service Road use.

PHOTO COURTESY GORDON HOLMES

Hopes were high for Kimberley Nordic racers going into the Teck Kootenay Cup races this past weekend in Kimberley, and the athletes did not disappoint. An especially successful group were the Midget Age Group. Above are Midget Age group - Megan Howe, David Howe (bronze medal), Daniel Holmes (gold medal), Mackenzie McLean (silver medal), Molly Miller (gold medal) and Jack Britner (silver medal).

SUPREME COURT

Panebianco testifies on day four of trial

The Invermere man charged with manslaughter in the April 2012 death of Cory Jarock took the stand on Friday in Cranbrook Supreme Court

SALLY MACDONALD
Townsmen Staff

Brian Panebianco used no more force than was necessary when he kicked Cory Jarock out of an Invermere house party in April 2012, defense counsel said Friday.

Panebianco is on trial in Cranbrook Supreme Court on manslaughter, criminal negligence, assault and robbery charges until Jan. 24.

On Friday, defense counsel Greg Sawchuk said that most of the injuries a pathologist reported from Jarock's autopsy were caused by the young man thrashing around as he died of hypothermia on the morning of April 3, 2012.

During the trial last week, the jury heard that Jarock had a blood alcohol concentration of about 350mg when he was kicked out of an Invermere house party on a cool spring night. He died of hypothermia overnight and was found by a passing driver about lunchtime the next day.

Panebianco took the stand to testify on Friday about the events of that fateful night. He said that he was invited by Emma Cain to Caitlin Jensen's house on April 2 to "hang out". At about 10:30 p.m., Cory Jarock joined the gathering and shared 15 beer with the group. Later, Jensen brought out a bottle of vodka, which the group also drank. Panebianco said he had about three drinks that night.

When an intoxicated Jarock overstayed his welcome, Panebianco said, Cain and Jensen asked him to get Jarock to leave. Panebianco said he wouldn't help.

See PANEBIANCO Page 3

Have Your Say

Complete the survey for your chance to...

WIN $1,000!

...five $1,000 cash prizes!

Enter at www.pulseresearch.com/eastkootenay

Win a $20 Grocery Card
Early Bird Draw