TECK REGIONAL SNOW CAMP (KOOTENAY)
Dec 11 – 13, 2026
Rossland, BC

Welcome to the 2026 Teck Regional Snow Camp (Kootenay) at Black Jack Ski Club in Rossland, BC. We respectfully acknowledge that we live, work and play on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territories of the Sinixt, Syilx, Secwépemc and Ktunaxa First Nations. We honour all other Indigenous people who walked on and cared for these lands before us and continue to do so.

We are planning camp activities at both our Main Trailhead and Biathlon Trailhead. However, if snow levels are low from the Main Trailhead at the time of camp, all the camp snow activities will move to Biathlon Trailhead, we will update closer to camp.

Name of Camp:	Teck Regional Snow Camp (Kootenay)
Dates:	Dec 11- 13, 2026
Camp Start Time:	4:30 PM PST Dec. 11, 2026, at Black Jack Day Lodge. Athlete and coaches are expected to arrive on time to pick up trail passes, camp bags, and be ready to start their first activity on classic skis at 5:00 PM.

Camp End Time:	12:30 PM PST December 13, 2026 This camp has a full participation policy. This means that participants are expected to arrive when the camp starts and stay until the camp ends unless you have made prior arrangements with the Head Coach.

Coaches will also receive 3 PD Points for their Maintenance of NCCP Certification. Volunteers and coaches will receive a supper meal ticket each day volunteering to a maximum of two suppers. Volunteers and coaches will also receive complimentary trail passes if they are volunteering on snow on the days they volunteer.
Accommodations	Out-of-town athletes are welcome to camp in the basement of the Black Jack Day lodge for a fee of $10/night, this will be an option in your Zone4 Registration. All campers must be accompanied by an adult and be mindful that the lodge will still be open for day users. Please note that there are no cooking facilities at the day lodge quite yet please pack quick and easy breakfasts as well as tableware and utensils. You will require a sleeping pad, pillow and sleeping bag, the day lodge will be open to the public for the weekend, please clean up your sleeping stuff before the start of camp, there will be a place to store personal items for the day. There is no potable water at the day lodge, and the only washrooms are upstairs or the outhouse after the lodge is closed for the day. We will have water jugs available at the lodge throughout the day. If camping is not for you, we have arranged preferential rates at Red Mountain Resort Properties, located just down the road from Black Jack. https://www.redresort.com/lodging/ please use code BJSNOWCAMP26% when booking. If you have any questions around booking, please reach out to Megan Lunt at megan.lunt@redresort.com and use Black Jack Snow Camp as a reference. Tinwood Cabins is another great option for accommodation with full kitchens: https://tinwoodcabins.com/
Transportation	Travelling between event locations will be your own responsibility, but carpooling will be encouraged. Please be aware that there may be times when there are two sessions in different locations in the same morning. Please arrive at the location for each event ready to ski at the start time.

Meals	Tickets for Friday and Saturday supper will be available for purchase for $15/each for those who would like a meal but are not participating in the camp or receiving a volunteer meal ticket. Please note that the meals included with the camp are prepared by volunteers. Dietary restrictions will be accommodated unless the complexity of adapting the meal exceeds the capacity of our volunteers. However, please consider the possibility of cross-contamination when deciding whether you or your athlete should participate in the meal. Please bring your own clean, reusable cutlery and a plate, to reduce waste.
