2026 Teck BC Championships - Resounding Success

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 23, 2026

Vancouver, BC – The Hollyburn Cross Country Ski Club hosted the Teck BC Championships at Whistler Olympic Park, Callaghan Valley, BC, this past weekend (February 20 to 22, 2026). The event, the culmination of the Teck BC Cup Series, gathered 518 participants representing 25 clubs - from BC (20), Ontario (2), Alberta (1), Yukon (1) and the USA (1). Racers aged 4 to 68 took part in a variety of races over the 3-day event under varying weather conditions, including a Free Technique Interval Start race under sunny skies and cool temperatures on Friday, Classic Technique Sprints on Saturday, and Classic Technique Relays under challenging, intense snow on Sunday.

The BC Championships mark the culmination of the yearly Teck BC Cup Series aggregate awards, including the College/University Aggregates and the BC Championship Club Trophy, where skiers compete with each other to score valuable points for their club. For the third year in a row, the coveted Club Trophy was presented to the Hollyburn Cross Country Ski Club with a commanding 183 points. Telemark Nordic Club placed second with 99 points, and Black Jack Ski Club, third with 70 points.

Thank you to the 108 volunteers and generous sponsors, without whom an event like this cannot take place.

Co-Chief of Competition Jake Weaver said, "I want to thank the Hollyburn Club for hosting the BC Championships, the Whistler Olympic Park and its staff for making the venue sparkle, and all the volunteers who put together a very successful event. I also want to recognize the 125 coaches and more than 500 athletes who travelled from across the province and made this year's BC Championships such a special event."
