Subject: Drug Education for Coaches - True Sport Clean

Hello Coaches,

CCBC's Targeted Coaches now has access to the CCES (Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport) online education tool. You can now access the True Sport Clean course that your athletes have access to (and are required to complete annually). We strongly encourage you to take this training as well, to ensure you have the same information your athletes have. Instructions are below on how you can set up an account. Once you have an account set up, search True Sport Clean and you will be taken to the course. Please notify me once you've taken the course – I am investigating as to whether we will be able to grant PD points.
