Caledonia Nordic Ski Club proudly hosts the Teck BC Cup #2 in Prince George, BC

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Prince George, BC – February 18, 2025

The Caledonia Nordic Ski Club proudly hosted the 2025 Teck BC Cup #2 on February 15–16, welcoming 348 cross-country skiers from across British Columbia and beyond. The event featured thrilling competitions, with athletes delivering outstanding performances under chilly but beautiful, sunny skies on Saturday and slightly warmer conditions on Sunday.

Event Highlights:

Saturday, February 15: The Classic Technique Mass Start races saw intense competition across various categories.

Sunday, February 16: Athletes competed in Interval Start Free Technique races, showcasing endurance and speed.

Another exciting aspect of the event was the participation of the newly established UNBC Nordic Ski team, with several Timberwolves reaching the podium.

The event was further enriched by the participation of a 13-member team from Quebec's Skinouk club, fostering camaraderie and competitive spirit among athletes.

The Caledonia Nordic Ski Club extends heartfelt gratitude to all participants, volunteers, sponsors, and staff whose dedication and support made the 2025 Teck BC Cup #2 a resounding success.
